

OPEN CALL for the exhibition with the theme "Make art not war!"

IAFF (International Agency for Freedom) is looking for courageous professional artists/art students who address the issue of freedom and peace personally and within their artworks. Artists who apply for our group exhibition should sincerely stand up for artistic freedom and their fundamental rights and not be intimidated by Cancel Culture.

Exhibition period: April 26 and 27, 2024 at the Musikbrauerei, Greifswalder Str. 23a, 10405 Berlin

Closing date for entries: March 08, 2024

Application documents:

A maximum of 5 works (paintings, drawings, photographs, sculptures, etc.) can be submitted

The following documents are required:

- 1) Curriculum vitae & previous exhibitions, max. 1 DIN A4 page (pdf)
- 2) Images of the artworks (JPEG, 300 DPI)
- 3) Artist statement, max. 1 DIN A4 page (pdf)
- 4) Completed participation form

The documents can be uploaded on our homepage or sent bundled in one folder and sent as a downloadable link or merged as one pdf document (max. 5 MB) to aytun@posteo.net

Conditions of participation

The artworks accepted for the exhibition are not insured for the duration of the exhibition. IAFF will provide supervisory staff during the exhibition.

Images/photographs of the works may be produced and published for non-commercial purposes (e.g. advertising, press reports).

An artist catalog will be published for the exhibition with a short text of each exhibiting artist and images of some of their works.

IAFF is responsible for the conception and curating of the event.
A commission of 10% will be charged for the sale of artworks.

By applying, exhibitors agree to the terms and conditions listed above and for their data to be processed for documentation purposes.

Contact form to apply for the 3rd IAFF exhibition 2024 is available on the website www.iaff.pink/open-call
